

An Arizona native, Amanda Mahan has cemented herself as a multi-faceted servant of the Lord. She has inspired listeners using music, captivated audiences through cinema, and motivated believers through her ministerial work with a special passion for unteaching the misconceptions many people have of the Bible. Amanda is a student of scripture on a never-ending search for Truth. She regularly sees God's character and magnificence throughout nature, most specifically in the secret lives of plants and insects. Amanda continues to serve the Called of God on a local, state and national level.
