

Min. Laura Anne Paulden is the Front Door and Young Adults Pastor at Church of God, Sarasota in Sarasota, Florida. She has a heart for welcoming and encouraging others into the Church and into the Kingdom of God! She especially loves serving in ministry with her husband, Aaron. She was raised in the Church of God and has degrees from both Anderson University and Mid-America Christian University. She loves seeing God at work in this incredible Church plant Pastored by her former youth pastor and mentors and the ways He is bringing so many people back to Him! With a staff comprised of almost all women, it has to be one of the only Churches of its kind. She is thankful to be a part of what God is doing in Sarasota and the World.
